A cornerstone of our success is the Peter Skerritt & Associates Online Testing System, which provides candidates with the opportunity to prepare for exams, via a large range of test and mock exam questions. These questions are available 24/7 and precisely reflect the emphasis and scope of the real exam syllabi. Detailed feedback with model answers is immediately available following completion of these tests and exams.

Distance-Learning

Candidates enrolled on our distance-learning programmes are provided with comprehensive study material as well as access to the Peter Skerritt & Associates Online Testing System. The study material has been prepared by expert faculty to accurately reflect the emphasis of the ACI exams. An e-mail help facility is also available to submit queries concerning any aspect of the syllabus, and answers are normally provided immediately.

Programme	Fee (USD)
Diploma	995
Dealing Certificate	895
Operations Certificate	895

Workshop Option

Our workshops are preceded by pre-course preparation to ensure the learning opportunity is maximised. The training is highly interactive and includes many practical exercises and case studies.

Our specialist facilitators all possess substantial financial markets experience and academic credentials.

Workshop fees are dependent on both location and the number of candidates. Interested parties are requested to contact us for a detailed proposal and/or further information.

FVFS offer the full suite of ACI qualifications. Both of our trainers have many years' experience – both in trading and training. We ensure that we too have written (all) the exams to familiarize ourselves with what our delegates will experience. Our training is predominantly classroom based with a post program online question bank being offered to the delegates. The course material is constantly updated so that it remains current and relevant (to the syllabus changes as well as the exams). Workshops are very practical. The underlying concept is explained and then the delegates are given a number of questions on which they can test their grasp and understanding of the concept being discussed. We believe in the concept of practice, practice, practice! There is always a component of self-study where the delegates will be expected to do some work on their own. Our philosophy is that each person is responsible for their own growth and development. FVFS prides itself in offering a 'safe' learning environment – safe to ask questions, safe to indicate a lack of understanding, safe to grow! The trainers therefore encourage questions and discussions during the classroom sessions as we feel that this is the best way to learn. On completion of the workshop the delegates are given access to our on-line question bank and there is always an on-line email help facility to assist should they require it.

Online Classroom Course:

Dealing Certificate: EUR 1.450 <https://treasurybookshop.com/product/dealing-certificate-on-line-preparation-course/>

This on-line course is delivered via Webex. The course is scheduled for ten sessions of 4 hours starting, in principle, at 1 p.m. CET and ending at 5 p.m. CET. The attendants get access to our e-learning material for a period of one year. Also an e-mail help facility is offered during the same period.

The number of participants is set at six. This is the maximum number of attendants that can be shown in a Webex session. The dates will be set in consultation with the participants. The course will be scheduled if we have reached the number of six participants.

E-Learning Courses:

Diploma: EUR 295 (<https://treasurybookshop.com/product/diploma/>)

Dealing Certificate: EUR 275 (https://treasurybookshop.com/product/dealing_certificate/)

Operations Certificate: EUR 195 (https://treasurybookshop.com/product/operations_certificate/)

The e-learning courses cover the entire ACI syllabi and give the best result in terms of passing rates. They contain separate text modules and over 500 practice questions with ample feedback (i.e. not only 'a, b, c or d' but instead a thorough elaboration for every calculations question). All e-learning courses also contain a mock exam tool that generates mock exams randomly from a database of 500 questions. These exams are similar to the real ACI exams. Access is granted for one year and the subscription can be renewed for one year for EUR 100.
